

Ayden Jenner Carroll, also known as Mr. Ayden, has been dancing since the age of 3 years old. He's been trained in all styles such as Tap, Classical Ballet, Jazz, Hip-Hop, Musical Theater, Lyrical, Contemporary, Modern, Partnering, and so much more! He has performed in numerous dance recitals, competitions, showcases and parades. Throughout his years of training, performing and competing - regionally and nationally - Ayden has also been trained by specialty teachers and choreographers such as Dustin Phillips, Sher Shepherd, Charles Kelley, Laurie Johnson, Joe Tremaine, Mia Michaels, and Travis Wall. At the age of 8, Ayden had the most privileged opportunity to perform with Dance the Magic at the Disneyland Resort in Anaheim, California. He has performed in the 2005 50th Golden Anniversary Celebration Parade and most recently the 2015 60th Anniversary Diamond Celebration Parade. Ayden has had a lot of big wins at competitions, but a highlight was being crowned Teen Mister DEA at Dance Educators of America's National Finals in Las Vegas, Nevada in July 2012!

Ayden's dance style is modern tap. He likes to use the musicality of a piece to direct the flow of a tap routine, matching the resonance with tap movement and technique.
