

Since he can remember, Tyler has had the passion to sing, dance, and entertain. That passion and natural talent eventually led him to attend Hawkins School of Performing Arts where he was given the opportunity to train and perform with the Folsom Lake Civic Ballet. Training in Ballet, Modern, contemporary, Tap, Hip Hop, Jazz, Musical theatre and other various styles, Tyler went on to receive his second scholarship and attended Northern California Dance Conservatory. He continued to gain valuable experience and knowledge as well as the confidence to follow his passion as a career teaching, choreographing and inspiring others. Tyler went on to teach competition teams and various classes at multiple studios throughout the Sacramento area before traveling the country to perform various roles in shows such as "Let's Go", "Shake, Rattle, Roll", "Hooray for Hollywood", Disney's "Mad T Party" and "Mickey and the Magical Map" just to name a few. Tyler now lives in Los Angeles where he teaches at the iconic Millennium Dance Complex. He also teaches award winning competition teams at Pacific Arts Center in Beverly Hills. Tyler performs often and has appeared on tv award shows including The Emmy's, Good Morning America, and Live with Kelly and Michael. He has had live performance experience with artists such as B5, The Jonas

Brothers, Aaron Carter, Miley Cyrus, and Everlife. He has choreographed/performed in music videos for artist such as Nytrix, Linda Lind, and Janelle + Denae. Tyler continues to pursue more opportunities within the entertainment industry and in early 2017, launched a new entertainment company of his own called, "One Stop Shop Entertainment". He is excited to continue to grow and thankful for his opportunities to entertain and inspire others.

Tyler's dance style is jazz and modern/contemporary. With his commercial background and teaching experience at Millennium Dance Complex in LA, his instruction is a great introduction to the professional commercial world.
