

Caroline Rutter has been dancing for 15 years, all of her training having been at In Sync Dance. She is currently attending Sierra College in Rocklin, and is majoring in Special Education. She is trained in classical ballet, jazz, tap, hip hop, contemporary, pointe, and Irish. Caroline has been a huge part of In Sync and the Kids Helping Kids Foundation for the past 11 years, and was also a part of the In Sync Dance Company dancers for the last 11 as well. She has performed with In Sync Dance for many events such as the annual Mandarin Festival in Auburn, Country Christmas in Old Town Auburn, The Festival of Lights Parade, The Royal Caribbean 'Stars at Sea' cruise, and six trips to Disneyland for their 'Dance The Magic' parades.